

Announcement of Intention

Muban Chom Bueng Rajabhat University

Subject: Policy of not accepting any gifts or gratuities from performing duties
(No Gift Policy)

As the president of Muban Chom Bueng Rajabhat University, along with the administrators and the staff of the university, I hereby declare our unwavering commitment to the "No Gift Policy." This policy establishes the university as an organization where personnel will abstain from accepting gifts or any forms of gratuity for any reason in connection with their official duties, whether before, during, or after the performance of their duties. This policy is implemented to prevent corruption and misconduct both in the present and the future. We will collaborate to instill good attitudes and values in carrying out our duties with morality, transparency, and fairness, practicing these principles until they become the organization's culture of integrity. We pledge not to engage in activities that conflict personal interests with the collective benefits, and we will not accept any property or other benefits that may be considered as income from anyone except for those legally permitted by the laws, rules, or regulations issued by the authority under the provisions of the law, or any other benefits received in an ethical manner according to the criteria and amounts specified by the National Anti-Corruption Commission (NACC). Moreover, we commit to adhering to the ethical standards for government officials to align with the good corporate governance policy, uphold the principles of good governance, and strengthen the organization's culture of virtue and transparency.

This announcement is effective as of December 18, 2024.
